

LSN: VIRTUAL LEARNING EXPECTATIONS

STUDENTS

SYNCHRONOUS VS ASYNCHRONOUS

- Synchronous- “Live” teaching and learning virtually in real time. Students are expected to follow their class schedule
 - Asynchronous- Recorded lessons and assignments pushed to students
 - Direct instruction will be live or recorded and shared with you in Schoology at least twice a week
 - Teachers may ask to meet with your class “live” on block ‘A’ Days and/or on block ‘B’ Days (see virtual class schedule)

ASSIGNMENTS

- Read all directions and examples
 - Adhere to due dates and complete assignments on time. Communicate with your teacher in extenuating circumstances
 - Teachers will post assignments before the end of their morning prep time
 - Follow virtual class schedule for ‘A’ and ‘B’ day

CLASSROOM MEETINGS

- Students are expected to be online at their defined time. If students are not checking in to class then the attendance office will follow up with parents each day their student misses online learning opportunities
 - Will be held through Google Meets with a teacher-provided link or Schoology conferences
 - All meetings will have teacher supervision
 - Respect class start and end times and leave after you are dismissed by your teacher
 - Enter meetings with your microphone muted. Keep yourself muted while others are talking
 - Follow teacher direction on how to “raise your hand”
 - Use the chat features appropriately
 - Be an active participant and be a good digital citizen

COMMUNICATION

- Schoology Messaging
 - Schoology discussion boards
 - Email- check your email frequently
 - Email- teachers may not be able to return emails immediately
 - Email- recheck all written directions prior to emailing questions
 - Email- be detailed, professional, and as clear as possible in your requests

ORGANIZATION

- Keep track of assignments using a method that works best for you (i.e. planner or calendar)
 - Reference Schoology calendar for due dates
 - Organize your Google Drive files- utilize folders

ENVIRONMENT

- Be aware of what is in the background during live class meetings and recordings

- Attempt to find a quiet place to work, especially during class meetings
- Wear school appropriate clothing during live meetings and video recordings out of respect for your classmates and teacher
- School rules regarding general student behavior still apply
